FLUENCY

The black and white dog was very smart. He hid his bones	12
all over his yard. He hid his bones in the shadows of the trees.	26
He hid his bones under the swing set. He even hid his bones	39
in the sand of the sandbox.	45
The dog was always happy. He was never without a bone.	56
The dog's teeth were very sharp and white, but he never bit	68
anyone. He only chewed on bones.	74
One day the dog was sleeping. A rat came into his yard.	86
"I will take this dog's bones," said the rat. "He is sleeping.	98
He will never know that I have taken them."	107
So the sneaky rat snuck around the yard and stole every	118
bone. Then he slipped under the fence and climbed up a tree.	130
He had all the bones with him in a bag.	140
"I will watch the dog from this branch. I will see what he	153
does when he opens his eyes."	159
The dog opened his eyes. He was hungry. He got up to	171
dig up a bone. He dug. The hole was empty.	181
"I am sure that I hid a bone here. I hid it right in the shadow	197 of this tree." He looked around.	203
Then he heard the rat laughing. He looked up and saw the	215
rat on the branch.	219
"I took your bones!" the rat yelled.	226
Just then the bones fell out of the tree. The dog ran under	239
the fence and got them all. He chased the rat away.	250

FLUENCY

Dad and Rob went fishing.	5
"We will catch fish to eat for lunch," said Dad.	15
They loaded their fishing things into the boat: poles, bait, life jackets, and a net.	25 30
"Let's catch a fish!" said Rob.	36
Dad made the boat go fast over the water. Rob liked feeling the wind in his hair. He liked feeling the cold water splash his face.	47 59 62
Soon they arrived at Dad's secret fishing spot. Dad took a minnow to put it on the hook.	73 80
"The big fish will try to eat this little fish. Then we will catch him," Dad told Rob.	94 98
Rob said, "What! We will let a big fish eat this little fish?" Rob looked at Dad with sad eyes.	111 118
He took the minnow from Dad. He held the little minnow in his hands.	130 132
"Dad, this little minnow has a family in our bait bucket! He has a mom who will miss him! He has a dad who will be mad at you for taking his baby! All the brother and sister fish will cry!" said Rob.	144 159 172 175
Dad shook his head. He started the motor and steered the boat toward home. Rob smiled. He was happy now because he had saved the little minnow.	186 196 202
Dad frowned and said, "I guess we will just have to eat hot dogs for lunch."	215 218

FLUENCY

It rained all day long. The wind and rain knocked the remaining leaves to the ground where they were swept into the street. Today was a typical fall day.	12 25 29
Just two days ago, the sun was out and the temperatures were very pleasant. Raking leaves into large playful piles was very relaxing.	42 52
The family worked together gathering the maple leaves into piles. Kids will be kids, and they loved jumping and hiding in the leaves. Even their dog liked to romp around in the leaves. It was fun for everyone.	62 76 90
The next day, the weather changed slightly. Clouds began to roll into the area and darken the sky. It did not rain then, but it was clear that winter was near. The family thought that the ground would be covered in no time. Winter was approaching fast.	101 117 129 137
They awoke to the rain hitting the roof of their home. It was a light rain, so they figured it would rain all day. They were right. Now the kids would not be able to play in the leaves. The leaves were all wet and brown. They were no longer dry and colorful.	152 167 182 190
The winds picked up speed and sent the piles of leaves blowing across the yard and into the street. The kids thought they were pretty lucky to have been able to play in the leaves yesterday.	202 215 226
Later in the day, the street sweeper came into their neighborhood and, with its mighty vacuum, gobbled up the leaves that had found their way into the street. The leaves were gone.	237 250 258
That night the kids were tucked into bed for the evening. As they slept, the rain turned to snow.	271 277
The kids dreamed of sledding and snowmen. The next morning their dreams came true. Snow!	287 292
